Southwark

Southwark stretches from the internationally renowned cultural quarter along the South Bank of the Thames at its north end, with more urban Bermondsey, Peckham and Camberwell at its centre down to leafy Dulwich at its Southern tip. It incorporates 5 major parks and open spaces suitable for and large scale events.

With the highest proportion of 25-40 year olds living in London, Southwark is the youngest and arguably most vibrant place in the city.

Southwark is an inspiring, progressive and entrepreneurial borough. It's home to many of London's most iconic attractions including London Bridge, The Shard, Tate Modern, Shakespeare's Globe, Borough Market, Imperial War Museum, Dulwich Picture Gallery and new cultural hub Peckham and Bermondsey.

Dulwich Park

Situated at Southwark's southern most edge, Dulwich Park covers 29 hectares and is packed with historic features, exciting facilities and perfect picnic spots.

The park is a grade II listed attraction and is home to a range of sculptures, a boating lake and stunning pavilion café

With nearby Dulwich Village, Forest Hill and vibrant Peckham on its door step Dulwich Park attracts swathes of people through its gates and is perfectly placed to host large scale cultural and creative events.
